

BLOCKCHAIN FOR PHILANTHROPY

Rhodri Davies

Programme Leader, Giving Thought

Rhodri leads Giving Thought – CAF’s in-house think tank focussing on current and future issues affecting philanthropy and civil society. He is the author of Public Good by Private Means: How philanthropy shapes Britain, which traces the history of philanthropy in Britain and what it tells us about the role of modern philanthropy.

Rhodri has spent nearly a decade specialising in public policy around philanthropy and the work of charities, and has researched, written and presented on a wide range of topics. He has a first-class degree in Mathematics and Philosophy from the University of Oxford.

He’s written extensively on what blockchain means for the future of the sector (see the papers below) and you can also watch Rhodri talking through some of these ideas on Giving Thought’s Blockchain microsite

Follow @Rhodri_H_Davies Email rdavies@cafonline.org

Giving Unchained

Philanthropy and the Blockchain

Block & Tackle

Using Blockchain technology to create and regulate civil society organisations

Losing the Middle but Keeping the Heart

Blockchain, DAOs and the future decentralisation of philanthropy

Registered Charity number 268369

CAF Charities Aid
Foundation