YOU’VE WON THE LOTTERY!

BUT WOULD BRITS PAY IT FORWARD?

Half agree that lottery winners should help those less fortunate by donating some of their winnings, but what would they do if they won the jackpot on either the Lotto or EuroMillions themselves?

3 in 4 would give away some of their winnings to a charity or good cause
The average person would donate over a quarter of their prize to charity
20 million people would set up their own charity or foundation for a cause close to their heart

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
